Fishel Hass Kim Albrecht Downey LLP Announces Name Change & New Partner

NEW ALBANY, OHIO (July 2, 2018) – Fishel Hass Kim Albrecht Downey LLP is changing its name to Fishel Downey Albrecht & Riepenhoff LLP to highlight the law firm's further growth in private-sector practice and litigation. We are also pleased to announce that Melanie J. Williamson has become a Partner with the Firm.

Named among 2018's Best Law Firms List by U.S. News & World Report and Best Lawyers®, Fishel Downey Albrecht & Riepenhoff's (FDAR) new name reflects the firm's growth. "As FDAR's newest partner, I'm proud to be a part of a dynamic firm. We are excited to announce the firm's new name and continue our service to Ohio employers with a focused energy and direction," says Melanie Williamson, attorney with Fishel Downey Albrecht & Riepenhoff LLP. "Our new name reflects not only the growth of our litigation practice but also our continued commitment to provide the best service to our clients in all aspects of employment and labor law."
